

BE YOUR MOST ATTRACTIVE: A FEW DATING TIPS

1. Arrive to your date neat, clean and manicured. If you don't care about how you look on a first date, your date will assume you're clueless, blasé or twice as sloppy after you “get comfortable.” So take care with your attire. For more information read “Single Style Tips” or consult an image consultant.
2. The most attractive thing you can do on a date is to relate the positive things happening in your life. No Whining !
3. Meet face-to-face rather than talk online. It's the best way to develop your relationship skills. Researchers at the University of Central Florida found that people who rely on “technology-mediated communication” (your computer, the Internet, text messaging, etc.) had lower scores on love and intimacy than people who brave face-to-face dating. 4. Learn the keys to small talk ease. Nothing is more painful than those deadly silences on a first date. There are simple conversational tools that will allow you have more fun and less stress during dates.
5. Know your values. Write them down. The clearer you are on what you value in life the easier it will be for you to find a good match in a mate. Be honest with yourself and your dates about how you approach life. Values might include things such as:
 - family time
 - financial responsibility
 - honesty
 - a sense of humor
 - love of travel
 - dedication to philanthropy
 - advanced education
 - living green
 - passion for pets
 - physical beauty
 - spiritual practice
 - personal growth
 - creativity
